

Director General FIA, Muhammad Tahir Rai, Hilal-i-Shujaat urged the officials to serve the country with honesty and dedication so as to earn a good name for Agency.

While addressing the passing out Ceremony of Assistant Director (Investigation) at FIA Academy, he stressed upon the importance of team work through which any organization can easily achieve its goals. Being prime investigation agency of Pakistan, we have to serve as a role model for provincial police and other Law enforcement agencies.

He further said that “The attitude of an individual official represents the collective attitude of the Agency. So, it is up to you to earn good name for the department through your devotion and honesty”.

At the end, Director General congratulated the passing out Assistant Directors over the successful completion of the course. He also thanked Director Training Dr. Athar Waheed for his dedication in organizing international standard capacity building courses with limited resources. The Director General also distributed certificates among the participants.
